A year later, the company changed the place of registration to the town of Racine in the same state, as its location. At the new location, the company was in 1963, Case's business associates were three farmers: Massena Erskine, Robert Baker and Stefan Bull. Later they were given the turn, the first. Later this machine was placed in the Smithsonian Museum in Washington, DC. With his combines, Jerome Case took first place in 1879. These several cars were the first machines of Case, who were sent abroad. The first of those thousands that were later exported internationally in large numbers. In 1884, Jerome Case visited one of the farms in Minnesota, where his technique was used, as he found it turned out to be true. Outraged by the fact that he would not be able to take the car with him and repair it, the next day Jerome burned it, and when the farm was later named after Keyes, which, by the way, is not at all surprising. A year later, Jerome Case died at the age of 72 years. At that time, Case was the most successful. In addition, a batch of 110 horsepower tractors with a 1899 the enterprise came out to the Russian market, and in 1904 presented to the consumer its first combine completely. This was shown by the results of. However, the production of civilian cars. Of the successes in this industry is worth noting only the 7-seat tourist car, released in 1920. The management of the Case Company invited rider Joe Jagersberg, who agreed. And the following year the company started to produce engine oil. Also for several years Case Company was engaged in the production of tractors. The response of their competitors from. Then Henry Ford, with his Model T. But even after the merger, the company controlled only 9% of the market, while 71% accounted for the company Ford. In the same year, the enterprise expected another change of name this time the company. Equipped with different types of engines, the tractors also. In the same year, the first tracked tractor J.I. Case Company.

During 1940 in the United States. A little later in the same year the company introduced tractors of the S and V. In 1941, the company opened three new factories in the United States. In addition, 1942 was significant in the history of the company by the appearance of the first cotton picking machine, which also. During the next 31 years, the company significantly globalized. Many other enterprises managed to join Case in such a long time. Thanks to this merger, in 1988, 94 products were produced. In 1996, the company acquired the Australian manufacturer of tractors Steyr Tractor. Due to the merger, CNH Global had to sell factories in Doncaster, United Kingdom, and Winnipeg.
